STEEL STRIKE MAY AFFECT 30,000 MEN IN THE BIRMINGHAM DISTRICT MONDAY

So Far No Plans For Coping With the Situation Have Been Made.

UNION MEN SPEEDING WALK-OUT PREPARATIONS

Independent Concerns Are Appealing to Workers to Remain at Their Posts.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—President Wilson did everything in his power to prevail upon Judge Gary, head of the steel corporation, to meet a committee of the steel workers and thus prevent a strike of the industry called for Monday. It was learned here today.

(International News Service.) BIRMINGHAM, Sept. 17.—The effect and extent of the steel strike set for next Monday continues problematical here. Although approximately 30,000 men are employed in the various plants of the Tennessee, Coal, Iron and Railroad company in this district, officials of that company declined to make any statement. At the same time officials of the union declare that the plants will be badly crippled by the walk-out, admitting at the same time that not all the men are organized. The Tennessee company is a subsidiary of the steel corporation.

Officials of the Sloss-Sheffield Co., the Republic Iron Co. and the Gulf States Steel company are of the opinion that these concerns will not be affected, as all run their plants on the open shop basis. A statement was made by President James Brown of the Gulf States Steel Co. to the I. N. S. this morning that "it was not believed that the Gulf States Steel company would be affected in any way."

Little or no precaution is being taken here, so far as can be ascertained, with reference to handling a strike situation, and little public interest is being manifested in the threatened strike.

STRIKE PREPARATIONS MADE

(International News Service.) PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—Preparations for a nation-wide strike of steel workers next Monday were being speeded today. After dispatching a letter to President Wilson denying his request to defer the strike until after the industrial conference on Oct. 6, several members of the national committee composed of representatives of 24 international unions left the city. At the last session a formal vote to defer the strike was defeated.

President Wilson was told in the letter that "after a thorough and calm review and study of the situation more than 2,000,000 organized men endorsed the strike and set September 22 as the date thereof." The whole blame for the strike was placed on the head of Judge Gary, chairman of the steel corporation, who refused to receive the leaders in conference. The one question that was on the lips of everyone today was "How many men will come out?" This question cannot be answered before Monday.

It is impossible at this time to give any accurate estimate of the number of men who will quit work next Monday, it was stated at strike headquarters.

AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Arrangements for directing the strike of steel workers in the Chicago district have been completed, union leaders declared here today, and strike headquarters have been established for this district in the federation building, with branches at Gary, Indiana Harbor and Joliet.

Anticipating the strike the McKeesport Tin Plate Company today closed down its mills, throwing 1,800 men out of work.

APPEAL TO MEN

(International News Service.) YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Presidents of three big independent steel companies today appealed to their employees to remain loyal and to continue work on and after Sept. 22. The appeals were issued in pamphlet form and printed in nine languages and in each case it is stated that the policy of the "open shop" will be continued.

BOSTON TO RECRUIT A POLICE FORCE OF SERVICE MEN ONLY

(International News Service.) BOSTON, Sept. 19.—Launching of a vigorous campaign to recruit a new police force to be composed entirely of world war veterans, decision against an appeal to the courts by attorneys for the strikers, announcement of a meeting tonight of the "committee of seventeen" of the Boston Central Labor Union to discuss plans for a general strike and the trial of 28 more members of the Metropolitan Park police on charges of insubordination, were the chief developments today in the Boston police strike.

SPAIN TO ALLOW WOMEN THE VOTE

(International News Service.) LONDON, Sept. 19.—The "votes for women" movement has reached Spain, where a Madrid dispatch stated that a bill will be submitted to parliament today providing for the extension of the franchise to women.

Miss Mathews Dies Very Suddenly

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Ratliff's cemetery, near Pricville, for Miss Audrey Mathews, aged 19, who died suddenly last night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mathews, of Pricville. Miss Mathews had been slightly ill several days and last night was taken suddenly worse. She died within a short time. She was the niece of Mrs. Eugene Sivley and Mason Crow, of Albany.

The deceased is survived by her parents; four brothers, Leiton, J. E. Earl, Mason and an infant brother; three sisters, Aslee, Nancy and Ethel.

One Way Traffic on La Fayette Talked

The question of making La Fayette street a thoroughfare with one way traffic between Bank and Railroad streets was discussed by the Decatur council last night without final action being taken. It was stated that traffic now is so heavy that the street is very congested a large part of the day.

The council last night also received reports and transacted other routine business.

Speeding Will Be Made Expensive

Speeding is going to be an expensive pastime for automobilists in Albany, Chief of Police Hendrix stated today. Three defendants were fined $6.00 each today on charges of speeding and other arrests will follow if the practice is not stopped, Chief Hendrix declared. Four alleged gamblers also were fined $6.00 each, bringing the day's total of police court receipts up to $60.

Boy Eats Berries and Becomes Ill

The six year old son of J. J. Skillington, of Route 2, is ill at the home of his parents. The child ate a quantity of "coon grapes" and it was believed for a time that he had been poisoned, but Dr. Buchanan, one of the attending physicians, today diagnosed the case as a slight attack of meningitis.

FOOTBALL TEAM WILL MAKE DRIVE FOR FUNDS TO PURCHASE UNIFORMS

Albany High Squad Will Ask Business Men to Donate for Togs of the Gridiron.

The football team of the Albany high school, with Barrett Shelton as captain and Joe Bell as business manager, will make a drive for a fund of $150 to be used in the purchase of uniforms and equipment. The boys will themselves buy sweaters and the less expensive articles of gridiron adornment, but will ask the business men to contribute for the purchase of the shoes and trousers. As there are now 23 men trying out for positions, the total toggerly bill will be somewhat heavy.

In soliciting funds, the high school boys will present the argument that they cannot personally afford the expense of uniforms, and that the city will be benefitted by the wide advertisement that will come from a winning team. The solicitors who will canvass Second and Fourth avenues say they will raise the money needed in a jiffy.

"The exact number lost will never be known," he said.

The search for bodies is being continued today by army aviators. To date more than 400 bodies have been recovered.

(International News Service.) ATHENS, Ala., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—Federal officers, headed by Collector N. L. Pierce, of Huntsville, swooped down upon the grand jury room here yesterday afternoon and took into custody Caleb Smith, member of the body and a prosperous farmer. Smith was put into an automobile and carried to Huntsville along with a copper still said to have been seized in Smith's smokehouse. It was not in operation.

ERA CONFERENCE COMES TO CLOSE AT WESTMINSTER CHURCH AT NOON

Objects and Goals of Work Discussed by Leaders at Sessions

ACHESON URGES PAID PUBLICITY FOR CHURCH

Delegates Will Begin Returning to Their Homes This Afternoon.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

8:30 Worship. Dr. S. D. Logan, former pastor of Westminster church.
9:00 The Campaigns of Two-Day Conferences.
9:20 Men's Work Plans in the District.
9:40 Perfecting the Organization. By Departments at Headquarters, Dr. Foulkes. By the District, Synods and Presbyteries, Dr. Acheson. By the City Church. By the Rural Church. By the Mountain Church.
11:20 Questions and Discussions.
11:40 Roll call. Statement by each chairman as to his plans.
12:30 Adjournment.

(By J. E. Blair.)

Last night's session of the New Era Conference, which closed at noon today, was attended by some of the most distinguished workers of the U. S. A. Presbyterian in the entire nation, though only two set addresses were made.

Rev. Dr. Hunter, of Mississippi presided and introduced as the first speaker Mrs. Daley, whose subject was: "The Church and its Kingdom Tasks."

The second address was by Rev. Dr. Graham, of Maryville, Tenn., who insisted on the necessity of deeds following belief. "My text could well be the one word, therefore," said the speaker.

"You know St. Paul takes up a number of chapters in explaining right Christian belief, then he takes other chapters in telling what deeds should be done by those who experience true faith."

"He says, that on account of the great faith we hold, that therefore we should present our bodies 'a living sacrifice.'"

"Oh it makes me mad—indignant to hear people say they demand the fruit of Christianity, but who deny the doctrines of Christianity. As well as, 'Oh I like the red juicy apple; but I hate the tree it grows on.' Or, 'I desire the sweet luscious grapes, but I despise the vine.' Or, 'I want the golden grain, but I want not the stalk and the chaff that makes its growth possible.'"

"I say to all Christian teachers," declared the speaker, "you must be able to give your people something besides dead sea apples. You must have the fruit of the Spirit to offer. And then the big problem comes up of applying the Gospel to deeds. Often when we undertake this and the shoe begins to fit too closely, we are told to 'stick to the Gospel.' But I say we want the Gospel to stick to those who hear it, too."

The speaker referred to the proposed League of Nations favorably, but declared that divine conceptions must prevail if the great covenant is to be a bar to all war. It was declared that an appeal to vicarious suffering in order to save men, was the greatest appeal of all.

"The appeal, 'Do not destroy this man, who Christ died for,' declared the speaker will save more from acting unjustly, than mere appeals to abstract principles of justice. In closing it was taught that the church had not come to anything like the great program that Christ had set for it—not until it adequately realized that indeed it was called "to preach the Gospel to every creature."

VERY WELL PLEASED WITH RESULTS OF TOUR

Declares is Convinced the People Are With Him in Fight.

(International News Service.)

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 19.—President Wilson invaded southern California today to continue his "appeal to the people" for the support of the peace treaty. Most of the day was spent on his special train. The president was highly delighted with his stay in San Francisco and Oakland and told members of his party that he was "well satisfied that the people are with him in the present controversy."

DALE COUNTY ALLOWED TO ELECT SUPERINTENDENT EDUCATION.

(International News Service.)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 19.—Notwithstanding the strong opposition from administration leaders the senate today passed the bill of Morris, of Dale, giving the people of that county the right to elect their own superintendent of education. The bill of West, of Jefferson, "to regulate the acquisition, disposition, position and use of firearms and ammunition in the state," which would have forced the registration of all firearms with the judge of probate was defeated by a vote of 18 to 5. A large number of local bills were passed in both the senate and house.

Daily Makes Error in Matlock's "Ad"

During the rush yesterday, occasioned by the current having been off and shutting down the typesetting machines, the Daily overlooked a correction in the advertisement of the Matlock Cash Store. An item was made to read: "Beautiful assortment of children's fine plush coats with fur collars, Friday and Saturday, 89c." The price should have been given as $3.98. The Daily accepts responsibility for the error, which is regretted, and makes this statement in justice to the Matlock store, which follows the policy of truthful advertising.

MORE MONEY FORTHE MINISTERS

The Huntsville Telegram, in a recent editorial, very pertinently says:

Preachers have caught some of the spirit of unrest, if we may judge from the utterances of the Rev. John R. Stratton of New York, whose denominational affiliations are not revealed in reporting his remarks. Mr. Stratton talks plainly when he says: "If the devil was not working 24 hours a day, American preachers might take a strike vote and let the country go straight to hell."

The words of the New York minister are forcible and they serve to renew attention to a subject often commented on—the small pay of the average preacher. Ministers' salaries always have been entirely too low compared with the education and natural ability demanded. At present preachers are sharing with others of fixed incomes the problem of making salaries fixed at pre-war figures, and none too large than, balance post-war prices of living. While anyone with the financial consideration only in view would be foolish to enter the ministry, a church that calls a pastor or receives one should contribute sufficient support to enable him to live comfortably and maintain his self-respect as one who pays his way.

That ministers of the Gospel are poorly paid is known of all men, including the officers of the churches they serve. However, the ministers themselves are somewhat to blame, for they should demand a part of the money that is being raised for church purposes by almost every denomination. National campaigns have been conducted and are to be conducted for hundreds of millions of dollars, but the big bulk of these donations will go abroad for mission and other purposes. The pastors, in their zeal to convert the world, have unselfishly overlooked their own interests. It may be presumed that they prefer it so, for otherwise they could easily remedy conditions. And it would not be necessary for them to strike.

FLOURISHING FLORENCE

"I was over at Florence the other day," said an Albany man, "and was impressed with the flourishing appearance of the town. It had a regular boom look, with all the streets torn up so that new paving could be laid and with many business houses in process of construction. Florence, apparently, is growing rapidly, a fact which is attributed in part to its live commercial club, with an annual revenue of over $25,000. I was told that some of the business institutions of the city contributed as much as $40 per month in the way of dues to this organization, the secretary of which receives a salary of $6,000 per year."—Albany Decatur Daily.

Just for your information Brother Bloodworth. The revenue of the Chamber of Commerce is more than $26,000.00 per annum, and there are not less than five institutions which contribute $100.00 per month. The salary of the secretary is $6,500.00 per annum—and the people of Florence believe that he is worth more than they are paying him.

Another thing worth mentioning. When the Chamber of Commerce financed its $26,000.00 budget last January they devised a new system of getting the money on the subscription. Up to this time their collections on subscriptions have been something more than 99 per cent.

If Albany and Decatur can get together and form a live civic body we will feel that we have some real competition in the Valley of the Tennessee and will try to put on a little extra speed. The ex-Albany folks in Florence are pulling for you in your effort to unite your cities. There is every reason for consolidation and tonight few which can be urged against it.

Get together and build a city—that's what we are doing.—Florence News.

Voice of the PeopleREPLIES TO BISHOP

Editor Albany-Decatur Daily:

I wish to be allowed space in your paper to reply to the letter of J. J. Bishop in your issue of yesterday.

I don't think it is right to labor for the statement to be made that it is getting "from 7 to 10 dollars per day," as a lot of people will know no better than to believe the statement. As a matter of fact labor at the shops is getting only $5.44 per day for mechanics and about $2.80 per day for common labor. I am surprised that such statements should be made and they will certainly not go unchallenged as long as I can help it. And while I am about it I wish to reply to certain statements made at the county anti-profiteering meeting to the effect that labor was not performing its duties properly at the shops under government control of the railroads. From my observation, I think it is like Mr. Hise explained at the meeting last night. In many cases the men have not been put in possession of enough material to keep them busy, in the yards especially. I know that those with whom I have talked say they would much rather be busy all the time, and that they would be if the right material was at hand. I have been surprised at the things that have been laid on labor and no one reply to them. And one of the most objectionable things that can be said are loose, misleading statements like Mr. Bishop made yesterday about labor getting from $7 to $10 per day.

Very truly yours,
FRED J. PERKINS.

JUST IN PASSINGFILLS LONG FELT WANT

"My hat cleaning and blocking plant seems to be filling a long felt want," said W. L. Clanton, manager of the Home Steam Laundry, "from the way in which orders have been pouring in. We are very much pleased at the patronage the people of North Alabama are giving us."

Anderson Gives Big Sum to Baptists

J. H. Anderson, of Knoxville, has subscribed $200,000 to the Baptist campaign for $75,000,000. He has also made a gift of $50,000 to the First Baptist church to be used in building a new church.

Announcement of the gifts was received Wednesday by Rev. J. H. Sharpe, campaign director for East Tennessee, in a telegram from Dr. L. R. Scarborough, director general, of Nashville. The telegram reads:

"J. H. Anderson, of Knoxville, gives two hundred thousand to campaign. One hundred and fifty thousand undesignated. He gives also to his new church building fifty thousand above the two hundred thousand. Tell it out. God is moving the soul of the south towards bigger things for the Master."

Mr. Anderson recently contributed the sum of $50,000 toward the Carson and Newman college at Jefferson City which is the designated proportion of his $200,000 donation to the Baptist campaign fund.—Knoxville Sentinel.

Mr. Anderson is president of the Anderson-Dulin-Varnelle chain of stores, one of which is the Matlock Cash store, Albany.

Hit by H. C. L.? Here's Opportunity to Cuit It to 20 Cents a Day

(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Here is an opportunity for every person to reduce the high cost of living and at the same time reduce his board bill to twenty cents a day.

Dr. Thomas J. Allen, of Eureka Springs, Ark., is the exponent of the new diet. Dr. Allen, one time president of Eureka College won fame several years ago when he won the appellation of "peanut fiend," because he subsisted sixty days on a peanut diet.

Dr. Allen, who is a convert to a new diet, believes variety will out do the peanut in satisfying the "inner man," so he has concocted ways and means to solve the high cost of living.

"I find I can do much better work, physical and mental, by living on a simple complete balanced ration of two or three articles of food," said Dr. Allen. "For the last five months my food has cost me less than twenty cents a day."

"For dinner today I had half a loaf of whole wheat bread, about six ounces of whole wheat and half a pound of raisins. A loaf of good bread and a quart of buttermilk made from skimmed milk by means of a dissolved tablet, with two ounces of corn oil made a meal that any working man can enjoy. On such a diet I can walk from ten to twenty miles a day and do the most intensive mental work."

"I eat but two meals a day, eliminating breakfast. In the morning I take merely a cup of cocoa without sugar, eating nothing else until noon. I eat a cake of yeast before each meal."

"I expect to go on eating this way for the next fifty years. I am satisfied it is my diet which has prolonged my life. If any one doubts the practicability of the near-monodiet, I am open to a challenge of any sort that many serve to establish it."

Friendly Game Poker All Right, Says Judge

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Poker fiends may indulge in their favorite "indoor sport" in Cleveland to their heart's content so long as it is a "friendly game."

"It seems to me," declared Judge Selzer in discharging five men who had a $2.50 pot when pinched, "that the police would do better by going after the big gambling places. Saloons are closed and men are not allowed to stand on the street. They've got to do something."

LINEN AND KITCHEN SHOWER

Another charming function for Miss Margaret Penick, whose marriage will be the event of next week, was the linen and kitchen shower given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. M. L. Hardage and Mrs. W. L. Gover at the residence of Mrs. Hardage on Jackson street.

The tang of fall in the air made the piazza a most desirable place to play bridge. On arrival the guests were greeted by Mrs. Gover who directed them to the card tables. She was very attractive in a gown of black charmeuse with a satin vest of metal lace. Mrs. Hardage was handsome in a white crepe de chene with a corsage of roses in pastel shades. Margaret Penick who stood with Mrs. Hardage wore a pretty dress of plum colored charmeuse with trimmings of varied colored brocade, her hat was a wide brimmed black pan velvet, the under facing was of gold colored velvet. Dolores Hardage was a laughing doll done up in yellow crepe paper who received the packages. Punch was served at the bridge tables during the game in which Miss Kate Hardage made top score. Mrs. E. J. Polhill made top score at the Rook table. Many more guests began arriving and the house was opened. Punch was served in the hall by Mrs. F. A. Wood from a bowl embedded in ferns and roses. The banister of the staircase got gay and got entwined with the roses and ferns. Mrs. George Allen was at the parlor door to invite the ladies to seats, for the opening of the packages. The decorations of the parlor were quite gay and effective, using Shasta daisies and ferns. From the lintel of the arch between the parlor and dining room depended a large yellow wedding bell, beneath this was the bride's chair that was draped in white and ornamented with a butterfly bow of yellow tulle. Here Margaret seated herself and opened the gifts brought her by Dolores in a little yellow covered wagon. One gift was coveted by many housekeepers, a large porcelain pan its contents were of great interest, a few dozen tea towels. The parlor overflowed filled the dining room, here the decorative motif was varied, the table was draped in lace and centered by a silver mounted plateau that held a bowl of heavy headed roses that nodded to their pretty reflection in the mirror beneath. Following the opening of the packages, tempting ices were served, in which the decorative colors were repeated in wedding bells, Miss Mary Penick assisting. Those enjoying this artistic affair were Mesdames: C. B. Elliott, R. G. Cortner, W. Russell, C. L. Saunders, A. Humphrey, B. Crawford, M. Rankin, F. Hunt, A. Jones, W. E. Crawford, L. Bullard, A. D. Cohen, A. A. Hardage, B. D. Pickens, Miss Kate Hardage, Mrs. I. C. Mays, T. A. Bowles, F. F. Tidwell, W. E. Steed, G. McDuff, Mary Penick, J. W. Jones, Harvey Blanton Harrison, Mrs. Minnie Draper, C. Ebb, J. W. McCleary, W. W. Fussell.

The score cards were miniature wedding bells outlined in gold and tied with bows of yellow tulle.

NOT SICK AND NOT WELL

In The Peculiar Situation Described,
ZIRON Iron Tonic Is Found Helpful.

It often happens that the organs of your body do not function properly, for some reason or other. There is nothing really wrong, and you are not sick. But certainly you are not well, either.

If you are in such a condition, read what Mr. Wm. M. Bass, Rt. 1, Crossville, Ala., did, and try ZIRON Iron Tonic, as he did. Mr. Bass says:

"I am nearly always pretty well and strong and do not need much medicine excepting for headaches. But, recently, when I had not been feeling very well for a while, I knew I needed some sort of medicine to make me all right.

I took ZIRON and it made me strong and well again."

ZIRON puts iron into the blood, and, by doing this, may prevent a serious attack of illness, which you are liable to "catch" at any time if your system is weakened or your condition below par.

ZIRON has well proven its value as a tonic. Try it when you feel the least bit out of sorts, or as good as usual, tired and weary.

Your druggist sells ZIRON on a money-back guarantee.

Thrilling Scenes Abound In "Vive La France!"

For Dorothy Dalton's newest Paramount photoplay, "Vive La France," which is to be displayed at the Delite theatre today, Thomas H. Ince has chosen a dramatic vehicle that, doubtless, will prove one of the most compelling of the many successful screen offerings in which that lovely and youthful star has been seen in the last few months.

The picture was written by H. H. Van Loan and the scenarist was C. Gardner Hunting. The story concerns two motion picture players, both French, who are involved in the war. The girl is able to assist her friend in executing a difficult and dangerous mission and after many thrilling episodes, they emerge triumphant and find happiness in their mutual love.

Miss Dalton's role is said to be a congenial one and one with vivid characteristics and opportunities for tense action and emotion of which she is so capable an exponent. Edmund Lowe is her leading man.

Lacy's Springs

LACEY SPRINGS, Ala., Sept. 17.—One of the most talked of roads in Morgan county and the surrounding country of Lacey Springs, is the noted "old Stage" road up Whitesburg mountain in now under speedy headway of piling. The liberal people of Huntsville and Lacey's put their financial heads together and raised considerable money which is duplicated by Morgan county making a very neat sum to work on any road.

School opened at this place Monday, Sept. 15, with a very fine prospect for a successful year with Prof. R. A. Gamble as principal, it is not learned just who the assistant will be. It is understood by the authorities, that a third teacher will be put in the schools in the near future.

SAVE 10 PER CENT ON LADIES' SUITS and COATS. YOUNG MEN'S SUITS

Marquette

It is just like this: You see, when we were buying our fall suits and coats for ladies, the salesman insisted on our buying greedily, for we would not get over half we buy, so we acted on his advice. But contrary to his prediction the orders were filled complete.

In order to get relief we asked the manufacturers for permission to return a part of them, and they refused.

Our next plan is to come to you with prices so attractive that we will be able to double our business on these garments this season, and what more we have the most exquisite assortment of ladies' suits and coats ever offered in this city and North Alabama. We cannot begin to mention prices and give description of all suits and coats.

In our coats you will find style tempered with common sense. These coat styles are charming, and a style that will gracefully lend itself to any figure—stout or slender, tall or short. These beautiful coats are carefully tailored from dependable fabrics. They are coats you will be proud to wear anywhere. We have them in all the new materials. We have them in all the new models.

SUITS. We have made every effort to feature special values in the latest and most desirable styles—garments that stand out and demand recognition. This ad contains only a fraction of our extensive lines, which we are displaying. In our selections you find fashionable all-wool solvortone, a soft napped fabric which combines an undertone of deep color with lighter fibres appearing in the nap and giving a silvery effect.

Suits of all-wool tricotine, designed on up-to-date graceful and conservative lines. This is a fabric which enjoys great popularity among the smart dressers this season, and we recommend it, for its splendid wearing qualities and fine appearance.

Beautiful all-wool Broadcloth, superbly tailored.

Suits of entirely new designs. Made of finest quality, lustrous all-wool broadcloth. This is assuredly one of the handsomest models shown anywhere this season. The material is extra fine, the design charming and the workmanship all that could be desired. We also have these suits in wool poplin, serges and all the leading weaves.

Now, in order to make these suits and coats go at once we are going to give an extra 10 per cent discount on each garment, beginning Saturday and continuing to Saturday next.

We have also over-bought on young men's suits, and we are going to give to the young men of this city and surrounding country an extra 10 per cent discount. Young men, this is your opportunity to buy your new fall suit.

Dawes Declines to Serve at Conference

Everything Going Up, Justices Ask For An Increase in Fines

(International News Service.) CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Everything is advancing in price, and with the high cost of living affecting everybody it is natural to suppose that every class of society will squirm until relief comes.

Now come the Justices of the Peace and Constables at the meeting of the Cook County Association of Justices of the Peace and Constables asking for an increase in fines.

John F. Boyer, president of the association, says the question hinges on the proposition of increasing fines in proportion to the costs of "other necessities."

Justice Samuel Harrison, of Evanston, pointed out that if a man was fined $5 two years ago a similar offense this year should cost him $10, and Justice D. M. Mickey, who may be an insurgent when the issue is raised on the convention floor, contends that "fines for Justices should be substantially boosted, but that fines should not be increased."

ENEMY'S COUNTRY WARM TO WILSON

REGION OF PRESIDENT'S POLITICAL POSS GIVES HIM NOISEST WELCOME OF TOUR

OFFICIAL WAR LOSSES

118,000,000,000 And 7,800,000 Lives Made Up Cost Of Great Struggle—Audiences Aghast

Aboard President Wilson's Special Train—The Great Northwest may be part of "the enemy's country" for President Wilson, at least so far as the league of nations project is concerned, but as he and his traveling companions look back upon it, as they speed south along the Pacific coast toward San Francisco, it is difficult for any of them to believe that such is the case.

Greeted By Great Throngs

The warmest, noisiest throngs that greeted him anywhere thus far in the course of his long journey were those that bade him welcome to Tacoma and Seattle, in the state of Washington, whose senatorial representative, Poinsett, is one of the principal foes of the league, and then down in Portland, the metropolis of Oregon, he was given an ovation quite as fervent and heart-warming. "Western hospitality," say those few who outspokenly oppose a league of any sort. But it was scarcely western hospitality, delightful as that is, which has brought thousands of cheers each time the president has presented a telling point in his addresses, and which has induced uncontrolled tears as he has pointed out some of the specific horrors and extravagances of the war just concluded, which he declares will be the last war if the league plan is adopted.

Official Statistics Made Public

Deeply impressive were the figures of the cost of the late war, in lives and dollars, making public the official statistics for the first time. Mr. Wilson said it cost Great Britain and her dominions $38,000,000,000; France $27,000,000,000; the United States $22,000,000,000; Russia $18,000,000,000; Italy $13,000,000,000; and a total, including Japan, Belgium and other small countries, of $123,000,000,000. It cost the central powers as follows: Germany $22,000,000,000; Austria-Hungary $11,000,000,000; Turkey and Bulgaria $4,000,000,000—a grand total of $136,000,000,000 to save civilization. And now the question is, Are we going to keep it saved? The expenditures of the United States were, at the rate of $1,000,000 an hour, including the night hours, for two years.

The battle deaths—and this is the cost that touches our hearts—were: Russia 1,700,000; Germany 1,600,000; France 1,350,000; Great Britain 900,000; Italy 364,000; United States 50,300; the total for all belligerents 7,450,200 war dead on the field of battle.

"The total of all battle deaths in all the wars of the world from 1793 to 1914 was under 6,000,000, so that in all the wars of the world for more than one hundred years fewer men died than have been killed upon the field of battle in the last five years. These are terrible facts, my fellow-citizens, and we ought never to forget them. We went into this war to do a thing that was fundamental for the world, and what I have come out upon this journey for is to ascertain whether the country has forgotten or not—I have found out already. The country has not forgotten, and it will never permit any man who stands in the way of the fulfillment of these great pledges ever to forget the sorrowful day when he made the attempt."

Audience Aghast At Recital Of Facts

The president's audience seemed to stand aghast as they heard this recital and realized that the figures were not guesses or approximations, but the actual count of the toll of lives and treasure taken by civilization's greatest tragedy. Then, in each case, the silence in which they sat was dispelled by applause and cheers as he pointed out the remedy for this, namely, arbitration and discussion instead of force of arms. Constantly he dwells upon this fact, that all the nations in the league pledge themselves to do one of two things, first to submit their differences to arbitration, in which case they will agree to have their case "discussed" by the council of the league; in which case six months is granted for the discussion. If this fails, they cannot go to war until further period of three months has elapsed. And no nations which wait for nine months will ever go to war, the president argues. There are disturbed labor conditions in the Northwestern states, Tacoma is just over a strike which deprived her of daily newspapers for a week; in Seattle radical labor elements displayed, so the president could see, badges demanding "Release Political Prisoners," and calling for the freedom of Moseley, Debs and others; Portland, too, is suffering from serious unrest. But in none of these places did the agitators demonstrate in any way against the president.

DON'T BETRAY U. S. WARNS PRESIDENT

IN ELOQUENT ADDRESS HE CAUTIONS SENATORS WHO OPPOSE THE LEAGUE

USES LODGE'S OWN WORDS

Says Neither Capital Nor Labor Shall Rule Here—Will Not Oppose Reservations Unchanging Exact Meaning of Pact

Aboard President Wilson's Special Train.—Before coming into California, which marks the halfway point in the long journey, and which is important also because it is the state of Hiram Johnson, one of the chief opponents of the league of nations covenant, President Wilson, "in the house of his friends," delivered one of the most powerful addresses of his tour. This was in Portland, Oregon, where, inspired by a tumultuous reception along the city's streets, and then over sixty miles of the famous Columbia highway, and finally in the big auditorium, the president gave eloquent voice to what was not only a strong appeal for the ratification of the pact, but a challenge to those who oppose it, and, at the same time, an intimation that he would not be averse to certain minor reservations, though he considered them entirely superfluous.

Nations Must Unite

At the beginning of his Portland address, Mr. Wilson read the following quotation, which, he said, expressed his views exactly: "Nations must unite as men unite in order to preserve peace and order." The nations must be so united as to be able to say to any single country, "You must not go to war," and they can say effectively when the country declaring war knows that the force which the United Nations place behind peace is irresistible.

Court's Decision Is Final

"In differences between individuals the decision of a court is final, because, in the last resort, the entire force of the community is behind the court's decision. In differences between nations which go beyond the range of arbitral questions, peace can only be maintained by putting behind it the force of united nations determined to uphold and prevent war." The audience warmly applauded the sentiment expressed in the quotation. Then it burst into cheers and laughter as the president explained that the quotation is from an address delivered at Union College in June, 1915, the year that the war began, by Mr. Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts. "I entirely concur in Senator Lodge's conclusion, and I hope I shall have his co-operation in bringing about the desired result."

Asks People To Forget Politics

Introduced by a Republican mayor, the president appealed to both his fellow-Democrats and to the Republicans to forget politics when considering the league. "If any one allows himself, when thinking of this matter, to think of the elections of 1920," Mr. Wilson said, "I want to declare that I separate myself from him." The president, referring to his senatorial opponents, said the great danger from them was that they might change the meaning of the peace treaty as to make necessary the reconsideration of it by the other powers, including Germany. "And it would sit very ill upon my stomach to take it back to Germany."

"Let Borah take it back," some one shouted. "I have said I do not see a single phrase in the covenant which is of doubtful meaning, but if they want to say, in other words, what that undoubted meaning is, provided they do not change that undoubted meaning, I have no objection."

Will Fight Minority Rule

Tremendous applause was evoked by a statement of Mr. Wilson's concerning the industrial situation. He declared: "I am going to fight any effort to have any minority rule this country. It does not make any difference whether it is capital or labor. No sort of privilege will ever be permitted in this country: it is a partnership of mockery."

We Must Be World Leaders

In final challenge to his opponents, the president said: "Let gentlemen beware how they disappoint the world, which is looking to America for leadership. Let gentlemen beware how they betray the immortal principles of the United States; if we want a league of nations, we must take this league of nations, for there is no way in which another is obtainable. All over the world people are looking to us with confidence, our rivals along with the weaker nations. I pray God that the gentlemen who are delaying this thing may presently see it in a different light."

Danger in Delay

The president declared again that Germany was taking new courage from our delay in ratifying the treaty, that her newspapers and public men were again becoming outspoken and that the pro-German propaganda was rearing its head once more in America. He urged his hearers to combat all this, so that "as America's soldiers saved Europe, America's citizens may save the world."

San Francisco, where the president is to remain for two days, gave him a hearty, cheering reception, seeming to demonstrate once more that, no matter what the politicians say, the plain people are for Mr. Wilson and the league.

DAILY READERS TOLD HOW TO WRITE SUCCESSFUL PLAY FOR ADAPTATION TO SCREEN

This is the second article of a series by Monte M. Katterjohn, the famous scenario expert, in which he tells The Daily readers how to write plays for the motion picture screen. The opening installment was published in The Daily of Wednesday. Today Mr. Katterjohn gives plain and pertinent advice to amateur writers of scenarios. The third article of the series will be in an early issue of The Daily.

By MONTE M. KATTERJOHN

Scenario Writer, Producer of Katterjohn Plays and Author of "Carmen of the Klondike," "The Flame of the Yukon" and Other Famous Photoplays.

In this installment it is my intention to give the amateur scenario writer my best advice on how to prepare his goods in order to obtain a market and get the best prices that such a market offers.

The amateur writer should not attempt to include technique in his play.

It should be of sufficient length to tell the plot, clearly and completely; use simple language, and endeavor to make it read as interestingly as possible.

Have it typewritten, as no manuscript written with pen or pencil is ever read by the studio editor.

Use only one side of the paper in preparing the play.

Always inclose a self addressed envelope when mailing to the scenario editor.

Place your name and address on the upper left hand corner of the manuscript.

Don't Write Letters

Do not write a letter saying it is your first attempt. Do not try to joke with the editor or manager of production, and above all don't try to play on the editor's sympathy.

Some persons write in that they hope their stories will be purchased as they are frightfully hard-up and in need of food and clothes. A writer who does these things never submits anything worth reading.

Give your story a title, as a majority of studios register all manuscripts under the title name.

It is not advisable for an outside writer to attempt to tell his story in continuity form. They should devote all their time to plot construction, characterization, and plot development. A great writer years ago said, "The play is the thing." With the screen writer, "The story is the thing." The outside writer should let the studio take care of the continuity.

In almost all studios the custom now is for the staff writer to submit to the production manager his story in detailed synopsis form. A consultation is then held in which the director, several of the players, the production manager, and perhaps the camera man participate.

Picked to Pieces

The synopsis is picked to pieces, dramatic situations are lifted out bodily, others added, characters are developed, and the play completely changed. Sometimes it is changed as much as 75%.

It is then given back to the continuity writer to be placed in scene sequence. The continuity writer usually keeps in constant touch with the director at all times.

The staff writer, although knowing his continuity technique, and aware of the peculiar needs of his respective studio and what parts are best suited to the players, must ever submit his story in synopsis form before it is mapped out in continuity. Occasionally, instead of submitting a synopsis in writing it is analyzed and discussed verbally before being placed in continuity form, but nevertheless, the principal is the same.

Can't Change Form

It can readily be seen that where a staff writer in a studio submits a synopsis before a continuity is started, there is no use whatever of the outside author taking time and labor in the attempt to hand in his play in this manner.

Some writers excel in taking an other person's synopsis and making a continuity sheet from it. Others are better equipped to write an original synopsis. Some few have the rare combination of both attributes. It is the ability to put your story into words that counts.

And so we come, to the plot itself, and its development.

While it is now understood that the imagination is the basic principal of plot construction, yet the imagination must work along constructive workmanship lines, or it is liable to be erratic.

Know Literature

A great many persons have vivid imaginations which at times seem to be nothing more or less than flights of fancy. The art of concentration must be utilized. Insane asylums are filled with untrained and undeveloped imaginations. To have a vivid imagination and then not be able to use it because of lack of training, is a tragedy.

To write plays for the screen the author should have a knowledge of literature, a knowledge of drama, and also be more or less a student of the screen drama. The more knowledge the writer has along these lines, the better chance he has of becoming a successful creator of picture stories.

In The Daily soon Mr. Katterjohn will tell in detail the best way to go about the selection of a theme. In reading these articles one should not forget that the author of this series is a highly paid scenario expert who knows not only what the moving picture companies want, but who has had years of experience in the actual preparation of manuscript for the photoplays. Don't miss the next installment.

Dizziness Causes Fall—Head Injured

"A year ago my stomach bloated so badly with gas that I fell unconscious and cut my head badly on corner of door. I had suffered from stomach trouble for several years and no medicine helped me to speak of. A druggist patched up my head and advised me to use Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for my stomach trouble. The results have been really wonderful. I have never had any sign of my former symptoms since." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

VETERANS ARE NOT ENVIOUS

Soldiers Who Took Part in the Civil War Proud of the Youngsters of Today.

Recently one of the current magazines contained a picture called, "His Place Usurped." It showed the usual village crowd of youngsters listening to a returned soldier tell stories of his life "over there." Sitting at one side of the picture, entirely deserted by every one, was a Civil war veteran. His face was full of sorrow over his desertion by his usual audience.

"We wondered whether, that was really the way people were doing—forgetting the old soldiers—also whether the old soldiers were feeling as this old man in the picture seemed to feel," said an Indiana man. "So we took the picture and showed it to an old man who is a very familiar figure in our streets—on account of his faded army uniform. He looked at the picture and then he chuckled:

"Why, bless your soul. I don't feel that way, he told us. 'I want to listen to 'em myself,' he continued. 'I want to know how they fought at Ypres and see if it was like we did at Antietam. And then, too, he smiled more. It's just this way. I've been honored for more than 50 years now, and during that time one gets just a little hungry for a chance to do a little honorin' himself. So now it's my chance to honor the young fellows. I'm glad the tables are turned for a little while, and I bet most of the other old comrades are, too.'"

DISCOVERED VAST DEAD CITY

Photographs Taken by Airman Over Mesopotamia Reveal Site of Once Vast Metropolis.

Lieut. Col. J. A. Beazeley gives in Geographical Journal (London) an interesting example of how photography from an airship can extend our knowledge. When making an aerial reconnaissance in Mesopotamia over territory occupied by the Turks he took a series of photographs near Samarra which shows distinctly the ruins of an ancient city extending 20 miles along the Tigris river and two miles and a half wide, large enough to shelter easily 4,000,000 inhabitants.

This city would never have been noticed on earth, since it is not marked by anything but scattered hillocks, although pottery and medals had been discovered on the site. But the photographs show clearly its whole plan, with its fortifications, canals for irrigation, and streets.

The fall of the airplane within the enemy lines and the capture of its passengers did not permit Colonel Beazeley to pursue his researches, but since the British occupied the territory an archeological expedition, guided by the photographs, has begun to explore the dead city.

FRESHMEN SENATORS

Intimate Personal Sketch of the New Arrivals in Congress Who Will Pilot Nation Through Reconstruction Days.

By DAVID M. CHURCH.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—In the freshman class of the United States Senate—those men who are beginning their first term—the most modest is Senator Arthur Capper, twice Governor of Kansas and a prosperous publisher. Quiet and unassuming, but deeply in earnest in his every move, Senator Capper is fast gaining prestige in the Senate as a man of strong convictions and the courage to follow those convictions to the end.

In personal appearance Senator Capper is but of medium stature, slight in build and not at all statesmanlike in his manner of attire. His smile, however, is sufficient to gain him wide respect and friendship because it is an honest smile.

Senator Capper rose to the Senate by way of newspaper offices. He learned typesetting when a schoolboy and upon his graduation from high school went to Topeka and became a compositor on the Morning Capital of that city. He was eager to learn the newspaper business, however, and sacrificed a weekly wage of $20 to take a place as a reporter with a "salary" of $10 a week. Senator Capper rose rapidly in the reporterial staff of the Morning Capital, became city editor and then managing editor. Still unsatisfied with his newspaper experience he left the corn belt and went to New York, where he worked for several months of the metropolitan dailies. Then he became a Washington correspondent and served for several months in the press galleries of Congress. Returning to Topeka he purchased The Mail, a small weekly paper published in North Topeka. This venture gave him confidence and he soon acquired another small paper. When his old paper, The Morning Capital, was placed on the market and considered an undesirable purchase. Senator Capper bought it for $1,000 in cash and $54,000 in notes. Now he is the owner of eight newspapers with wide circulation throughout the Corn Belt States.

Senator Capper first entered politics as a party worker and his vigorous editorial policies appealed to the people of his State who prevailed upon him to be a candidate for Governor. He failed of election, but tried again and was elected and then re-elected.

Oratory is not one of Senator Capper's natural abilities, but he has forced himself to become a public speaker and a good one. During the war with Germany he sometimes made scores of speeches for war purposes in his State. There is none of the silver tongued oratory when Senator Capper speaks, but he is so earnest and convincing that he always holds his audiences.

In the Senate this Northeliff of the Corn Belt is the representative of his constituents, who are chiefly farmers. He works constantly for the interests of the farmers and by his constancy he is making headway and bids fair to become a leader.

Plain in manner and habits Senator Capper is a man of the people—and it is not a pose.

WAS CONFINED TO BED TWO MONTHS FROM RHEUMATISM

HUNTSVILLE LADY WAS IN BAD CONDITION; KNEES WOULD SWELL DOUBLE THEIR NATURAL SIZE; COULD NOT WALK.

CLAIMS GREAT RELIEF FROM TAKING THE NEW REMEDY, DRECO.

"I could not walk on account of the pain and swelling in my joints caused by rheumatism, and was confined to my bed for two whole months, and suffered agonies," are the words of Mrs. Georgia Fullington of 104 Green street, Huntsville, Ala.

"I know what it is to suffer, in addition to the rheumatism, my nerves went to pieces so that I could not get any sleep till long after midnight. I was constipated and suffered from severe headache. My appetite dropped off until I became weak and pale."

"I'm a whole lot better now, since taking Dreco. The pain and swelling in my knees are about gone, and I can rest well at night. My bowels act with regularity and I have a healthy appetite again. I expect to take several bottles of Dreco before stopping, and feel that I'll clear my whole system out."

Many persons are speaking highly of the new root and herb remedy, Dreco, which seems to overcome rheumatism, regulates the bowels, increases the appetite, induces sound sleep, rouses a sluggish liver and strengthens weak kidneys.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Albany by Albany Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Poetic if Not Scientific.

"I wonder what the moon is made of?" said little Jojo, as she paused to gaze at the large round orb. "It ain't made of nothing," replied her twin brother, Bill. "It's a hole in the sky for God to look through when he wants to see if we are misidin' ma."

Minnebochoo.

Governor Saunders of Nebraska once spoke at Lincoln of a little settlement on a stream called Weeping Water. Lincoln chuckled: "Well, they say that Minnebochoo means laughing water, so Minnebochoo must be Indian for weeping water."

Every druggist in town—your druggist, and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. "Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe all the next day like violent calomel.

GERMANS WORKING 14 HOURS DAILY IN THE RACE FOR TRADE

In Sections Where Allies Have No Representatives Teutons Have Refused to Recognize Eight-Hour Day.

International News Service and London Daily Express Correspondence.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—"Germany is out again to beat the world," said the senior member of a city firm. "I have just returned from a visit to our commercial connections in Switzerland. I met there the chairman of an important firm of machine manufacturers. He was obviously a German, with his square head and bad French, and for once I pretended to be pro-German and spoke with him in his own language.

"He let the cat out of the bag. All the labor in the Schwarzwald and in South Germany, where the Allies have no representatives, he told me, has refused to recognize the eight-hour day. The men are working furiously without pressure of any sort, up to fourteen hours a day in order to be ready to enter the world's markets again at the first opportunity.

"This German chairman of a Swiss concern simply chuckled with glee when he said, 'Our good German workmen know whence riches come—the work of their hands. They do not want this easy day of eight hours; they want wealth, and they will have it.'

"Germany is recuperating after the war faster than any other nation, simply because, instead of giving way to the reaction of peace demanding the impossible by means of strikes, she is working as hard as human strength and brain allow to recapture her old commercial pinnacle and be again the pre-war Germany.

"In France, and among the Allies generally, there are traders who have already forgotten the war and care only to buy in the cheapest market.

"Germany is out, I repeat, to provide that market, and our eight-hour industrial day will spell disaster for us if we do not wake up."

HUGGINS PICKS WHITE SOX TO WIN WORLD BASEBALL SERIES

By JACK VELOCK.

International News Service Sport Editor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Miller Huggins likes the White Sox in the coming world's series.

The midget manager of the New York Yankees opines that the Alabamian Hose should defeat the Red Sox in the October classic for two reasons:

First of all, Huggins points out that the Sox have encountered and consistently defeated much better teams all season than the Red Sox have been called upon to defeat. Secondly, the little manager believes that the long distance hitters of the Sox will outpace the heavy hitters of the Moran-

ten. Huggins is pretty well qualified to make predictions. After years of experience in the National League and several seasons in the American he has had an opportunity to size up the playing in both circuits and make one of the individual qualities of the various teams. But let him tell it ere as he recently told it in a moment of inspiration.

"I have little or no sympathy with those who insist that the National league is a minor in comparison with the American as to their respective standards of play," chirped Huggins. "There is very little difference between the two leagues, and that is the way it should be; the way the fans could have it. But I can truthfully say that there have been more strong arms fighting for the American league pennant this season than has been the case in the national. It has been that way for a number of years.

"This means that Chicago ought to be the better team. The White Sox should be stronger than the Red Sox on both offense and defense, because they have been up against stronger teams and stiffer competition throughout the season. They have seldom found a soft series.

"Playing so many hard games, I would think, would give the Sox a better balance in a tight series such as the world's series usually is and should be this year. And there is something else in Chicago's favor.

"The hard, long-distance hitters in the White Sox batting order should carry a lot of weight in the outcome of the October battle. Eddie Collins, Joe Jackson, Oscar Felsch, who is sitting well again this season; Buck Weaver and Fred McMullen, not to mention Chick Gandil, should make their long hitting felt. John Collins also hits them far away.

"After all is said, you will see that it is the long hitter who breaks up world's series. Men like Baker, Gowdy, Lewis, Hooper, Felsch and Ruth have proven this in past series, and it is my belief that the Sox will show more strength in long hitting than their opponents."

Huggins admittedly believes that Felsch, Weaver, Collins and other Sox swatsmen will outpace Daubert, Rousch and Neale, the heavy hitters of the Red Sox. He is certainly qualified to make comparisons, and in all probability he bases his contention on the belief that American League sluggers have had to face tougher pitching. October will give us a line on Huggins' guessing ability.

Flowers of Poland.

According to an English newspaper correspondent who recently reported a journey he had made from Paris to the Polish capital, the most impressive spectacle that he saw was the mantle of blossoms, clustered profusely, which fringed the highways and byways about Warsaw. "All the wars of Poland," he writes, "could not check the new life that came riding through her borders at the head of the advancing spring; sprays of lilac found place in the gray caps of Polish lancers, tulips and chestnut leaves, tokens of the new dawn, in the garb of peer and peasant. Everywhere was spring yielding back a measure of her everlasting rights." But the flowers never took much notice of the war even "at the front."

Runs News Stand Without Hands.

There is a boy running a news stand in Union square, New York city, who has no hands. He opens and closes his stand, opens and folds his papers and passes them out to customers without delay or difficulty, and makes change like an expert.

Lou Young is his name. He lost both hands in an explosion when thirteen years old, but that handicap did not hinder him from going into business and making a success of it.

"The cripple who has spunk is as good as anyone else," he says.

PROMINENT OBION COUNTY PHYSICIAN PRAISES TRUTONA

DR. RICHARD'S ENDORSEMENT
BACKED BY 35 YEARS CON-STANT MEDICAL PRACTICE.

KENTON, Tenn., Sept. 12.—Dr. J. Richards, 78 years old, has been a resident of this vicinity for years, and he is well known and highly respected by everyone for "miles around." For the past 35 years Dr. Richards has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine here, during which time he has won the confidence of thousands of acquaintances, together with the credit of being among the best known and most prominent physicians of this vicinity. His following public endorsement of Trutona, will give to hundreds—yes thousands, faith in the perfect tonic, which will increase and become stronger as the days pass.

Everyone knows that a man in my profession could not and would not recommend a medicine unless it was really one of merit," Dr. Richards said, "but I have tried Trutona and I know it to be a tonic of real merit.

"I've been annoyed with nervousness for several years," he continued. "My appetite was poor, and I found it difficult to rest at night.

"After 10 day's treatment of Trutona, duty compels me to recommend the nerve tonic as an appetizer, strengthener, system builder and a real nerve medicine. In short—a tonic that has real medicinal merit. I hope those suffering with nervousness, loss of appetite and a generally run down system will try Trutona. It will surely help them."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Decatur by Decatur Drug Co. and in Albany at Prentiss-Dillehay Drug Co. The L. S. DuBois, Sons & Co., Wholesale distributors of Trutona in this territory.—Advertisement.
